

Help this female monarch butterfly find milkweed to lay her eggs!

Why should you plant milkweed?

Monarch butterflies have only one host plant for their eggs—milkweed! There are many different types to choose from. Purple common milkweed smells incredible, orange butterfly weed is low-maintenance and doesn't spread, and swamp milkweed thrives in wetter garden soil.

Don't wait—plant some milkweed seed this fall!